

The Badass Teachers Association 2018 Grant Program

Theme: Framing Education Equity

The Badass Teachers Association is pleased to announce the launch of our grant program.

These grants will be awarded in three program areas and advance the Association's commitment to equity and public education. The theme for the 2018 grant program is- Framing Education Equity. Grants will be offered in

- Research
- Forums/Organizing
- Actions

Research Grants

Application Due Date:

Thursday, February 16, 2018

- Research Application

https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSfecrYn6A_OVfQqrCg306C6RgdFtpZ9uHLyaV7dbGDTgzFM0g/viewform

Grant Categories

1. Best Practices
2. Debunking "Corporate" Education Reform

Description

1. Best Practices: This research project will include an action research and or meta-analysis of best practices that further education equity.
2. Debunking "Corporate" Education Reform: This research project will include an action research and/or meta-analysis of how corporate based education reform has damaged education in this country and how it has hurt children, with specific focus on communities of color.

Eligibility

Eligible applicants should be: Current practicing public school educators, parents of public school children, college students, professors of higher education, education activists, retired teachers, and in good standing on the BAT network.

Award Information

Funding Mechanism:

Cooperative Agreement

Anticipated Total Available Funding:

$1,000 ($500 and $500)

Anticipated Number of Awards:

2

Length of Project:

One year

Contact Information

The Badass Teachers Association
Grant Administrator
P.O. Box 1390
Bellmore, NY 11710
516-987-4405
contact.batmanager@gmail.com

Forum/Organizing Grants

Applications will be released May 1, 2018. Please check back

Application Due Date:

May 18, 2018

Grant Categories

Forum and Organizing

Description

Forum and organizing grants will be used for public education forums and/or education organizing rooted in education equity. Forum and organizing grants should be used to inform the general public about education equity as it is anchored in strong and well-funded public education for all children.

Eligibility

Eligible applicants should be: Current practicing public school educators, parents of public school children, college students, professors of higher education, education activists, retired teachers, and in good standing on the BAT network

Award Information

Funding Mechanism:

Cooperative Agreement

Anticipated Total Available Funding:

$1,000 (5 grants at $200 each)

Anticipated Number of Awards:

5

Length of Project:

One year

Contact Information

The Badass Teachers Association
Grant Administrator
P.O. Box 1390

Bellmore, NY 11710
516-987-4405
contact.batmanager@gmail.com

Action Grants

Applications will be released September 1, 2018. Please check back.

Application Due Date:

September 14, 2018

Grant Categories

Action Grants

Description

Action grants will be used for direct action, rallies, and policy work that is rooted in education equity. Action grants should be used to inform the general public about education equity as it is anchored in strong and well-funded public education for all children.

Eligibility

Eligible applicants should be: Current practicing public school educators, parents of public school children, college students, professors of higher education, retired teachers, education activists, and in good standing on the BAT network

Award Information

Funding Mechanism:

Cooperative Agreement

Anticipated Total Available Funding:

$1,000 (10 grants for $100)

Anticipated Number of Awards:

10

Length of Project:

One year

Contact Information

The Badass Teachers Association

Grant Administrator

P.O. Box 1390

Bellmore, NY 11710

516-987-4405

contact.batmanager@gmail.com